

Sisters of Divine Providence of Kentucky Corporate Stance on Human Trafficking

Called by our charism to help the poor know their dignity as children of God and develop their full potential as human persons, and challenged by our recent chapters to “be partners in the work of justice, challenging the systems that dominate and exclude” and “to mirror God’s all-embracing love”,

We, Sisters of Divine Providence of Kentucky, stand in solidarity with our sisters and brothers around the world who oppose the trafficking of persons, especially women and children, for the purposes of commercial sex or forced labor.

We commit ourselves to prayer, education of ourselves and others, and action to support the victims of human trafficking and to work to end this modern day form of slavery.

Accepted September 1, 2015